

BIO Dr. Bram Bakker

Website: www.brambakker.com

Bram Bakker is in 1999 psychiater geworden. In 2000 is hij gepromoveerd op de behandeling van paniekaanvallen.

Sindsdien heeft hij onder meer met eetstoornissen gewerkt op de psychiatrische afdeling van een algemeen ziekenhuis, Centrum Eetstoornissen Ursula en in zijn eigen praktijk. Ook is hij gespecialiseerd in de behandeling van psychiatrische stoornissen bij (top)sporters.

Sinds 2009 is hij werkzaam als psychiater en directeur behandelzaken bij SolutionS, een particuliere GGZ-instelling voor onder meer verslaving en eetstoornissen.

Hij is bestuurlid van de sectie Exercise, Psychiatry and Sports van de WPA, World Psychiatric Association.

BIO drs. A.P. (Karin) de Bruin

Website: www.karindebruin.nl

Karin is in 1995 afgestudeerd in de klinische en gezondheidspsychologie en in het bezit van de titels PSYCHOLOOG NIP, docentsportpsycholoog en praktijksportpsycholoog VSPN®.

Sinds 2002 werkt zij fulltime als sportpsychologe en combineert zij haar eigen praktijk in mentale training en coaching van topsporters en dansers met onderwijs en onderzoek aan de Vrije Universiteit (Faculteit Bewegingswetenschappen). Haar promotieonderzoek Thin is going to win? is gericht op eetproblemen in de sport. Karin ondersteunt op diverse manieren de ontwikkeling van een veilig, gezond en breed toegankelijk (top)sportklimaat. In dit verband is zij onder meer werkzaam als vertrouwenspersoon en adviseur seksuele intimidatie bij het NOC*NSF.

Zij is bestuurslid van de Vereniging voor Sportpsychologie in Nederland (VSPN).

BIO Jorunn Sundgot-Borgen, Prof, PhD

Website: http://www.nih.no/templates/EmployeePresentation_211.aspx

Jorunn Sundgot-Borgen is currently working as a professor in physical activity and health at The Norwegian University of Sport and Physical Education. Since 1995 she is a consultant at The Norwegian Olympic Training center and acted as Head of the Nutrition department for the last 5 years.

She is one of the leading researchers in the field of eating disorders, nutrition and osteoporosis in sports in general and in female athletes in particular and in this instance she has dozens of excellent papers and book chapters published related to eating disorders in sport. She has coauthored the Disordered Eating section of the International Olympic Committee Medical Commission Position Stand on the Female Athlete Triad. In her athletic career, she used to be a member of the Norwegian national team in gymnastics and rhythmical gymnastics.

BIO Ron A. Thompson, PhD, FAED

Website: www.bloomington-eating-disorders.com

Ron Thompson is a psychologist in private practice in Bloomington, Indiana, specializing in the treatment of eating disorders. He has also been a consulting psychologist for the Athletic Department at Indiana University for the past 21 years. In addition to his clinical work, Dr. Thompson has provided education and training on eating disorders at National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) member institutions. He has coauthored the Disordered Eating section of the International Olympic Committee Medical Commission Position Stand on the Female Athlete Triad, the NCAA Coaches Handbook: Managing the Female Athlete Triad, and the NCAA handbook Managing the Mental Health Issues of Collegiate Athletes. His publications include the books Bulimia: A Guide for Family and Friends, Helping Athletes with Eating Disorders, and Eating Disorders in Sport, which were co-authored with Roberta Sherman, and The Exercise Balance, co-authored with Pauline Powers. He is a fellow in the Academy for Eating Disorders, where he serves as Co-chair of the Athlete Special Interest Group, and (with colleague Roberta Sherman) was the recipient of the Academy for Eating Disorders' 2008 Leadership Award for Clinical, Administrative or Educational Service.